

I feel that the broadcast ownership rules should not be changed without more public discussion of the impact of such rule changes. I found similar rule relaxations in the radio market caused a clear degeneration of the quality and disintegration of the diversity of radio station content.

Thank you for your attention in this matter.

Sincerely,
Philip Orton